

Can't Stop Now

Never thought I'd fall into the trap that life had laid for me
Always thought I'd be smarter so much smarter than that
But if you live long enough one day the crossroad's gonna make you choose
Now I'm too far gone yeah I'm too far gone to go back

I can't stop now
'Cause my feet are running
I can't stop now
'Cause I'll turn to stone
I can't stop now
'Cause the night is coming
And there's still fire in my blood
And strength in my bones

Sun gonna rise, sea gonna roll on to the shore
World gonna keep on spinning no matter what I do
Don't wanna wait too long don't wanna turn into a bitter man
Gotta find my way out of the old dream and into the new

I can't stop now
'Cause my feet are running
I can't stop now
'Cause I'll turn to stone
I can't stop now
'Cause the night is coming
And there's still fire in my blood
And strength in my bones

Soldiers frozen in their boots
Old tree dying from the roots
Waiting for the hand of fate
Ain't no secret life is short
Time is tight and can't be bought
Too many people learn too late

I can't stop now
'Cause my feet are running
I can't stop now
'Cause I'll turn to stone
I can't stop now
'Cause the night is coming
And there's still fire in my blood
And strength in my bones
