

Suzanne

One thing's for sure nothing is pure
And the future is uncertain
I feel down and out but there's something about you
That puts my mind at ease

Holding on to nothing
It's a hollow game
Come a little closer
Break my heart again

Suzanne

I don't know the first thing about living

Suzanne

I'm broken and I got know place to fall

Suzanne

I may be lost but something bout you makes my heart believe

I took a stand on a wrongheaded plan
Now I'm reeling from the failure
Stay for a while and lend me your smile
And help me to forget

Throwing stones at shadows

Is how a spend my time

Give me one good reason

Make me change my mind

Suzanne

I don't know the first thing about living

Suzanne

I broken and I got know place to fall

Suzanne

I may be lost but something bout you makes my heart believe

Well I got no answers
That I'm clinging to
'Cept this restless hungry
That's crying out for you
