

Tightrope

I've been here all night waiting by the phone
Wishing and hoping maybe you'd call
It would break my heart if you said we're through
And all my tears like rain would surely fall

I'm walking this tightrope
And I just can't stand the pain
I'll be walking this tightrope
Till the time I see you again
So I'm praying
Yes I'm praying
Come back to me

I've been down so low since you went away
Can't find no bright side I can look on
There's no relief that comes with the break of day
My heart just keeps on singing this same sad song

I'm walking this tightrope
And I just can't stand the pain
I'll be walking this tightrope
Till the time I see you again
So I'm praying
Yes I'm praying
Come back to me

I'll do whatever it takes
Darling you know that I'm willing Cause having you here with me makes
My whole life worth living

I don't care right now who was right or wrong
I don't want to fight anymore
I'd give anything just to hear your voice
To see the sight of your face at my door

I'm walking this tightrope
And I just can't stand the pain
I'll be walking this tightrope
Till the time I see you again
So I'm praying
Yes I'm praying
Come back to me
